“Good Guess is an extremely classy horse. The Prix Jean Prat is always a good test of a three-year-old, being over seven furlongs on a straight track, and he won the race over a strong field very easily. He also came to hand early as a two-year-old, had a very good turn of foot, so he should be an exciting prospect for breeders.”

Trainer, Fabrice Chappet

“He is hard to fault both physically and mentally, as well as on pedigree. He was an obvious one at the sales and he proved the market right, especially when he won the Prix Jean Prat in such great style over four other Group 1 winners.”
